ABOUT

For a $10 Subscription fee FAB MARKET FANTASY provides content, chat, and free entry into an unlimited number of prediction contests to win prizes. The prizes are denominated in Fanbucks and there is a $5 Fanback charge for every contest entered or prediction made.

At the end of the month, if you have a positive Fanback balance it is converted on a one for one basis into dollars and deposited in your account.

You have nothing at stake or at risk. Predict as much as you like.

ABOUT

PREDICT THAT allows you to make a prediction by picking a roster of players for a game or just predict how an individual player will do in the game. If you pick a roster of players, you compete against rosters of other users in a 12 team contest for prizes. If you correctly make an individual prediction, you receive a prize based on the PT value of that prediction.

For a $10 monthly fee, you get access to the site, content, chat, and the ability to make unlimited predictions in the team and individual contests. All prizes are denominated in Fanbucks and each prediction costs a prediction charge of $5 Fanbucks. If you have positive Fanbucks at the end of the month, they are converted into dollars and placed in your account. If you end up with a negative Fanback balance you start over at zero the next month. Predict often and predict correctly!!! You have nothing at stake and nothing at risk.
